

Nyangatjatjara College

Docker River Campus

Hip Hop Trachoma Awareness

It was great to have these visitors who taught the students about Trachoma through song and dance, and wrote and produced a music video with the school and community.

The Hip Hop group spent the whole week with the community performing and teaching and helping make sure everyone was treated by the Trachoma nurses. It brought the whole community together and they were very well received.

